My dearest Rene.

Thanks so much for yr letter.
Awfully glad you are finding painting exciting.
I like & admire the large palette you like.

As for me. the document has not advanced much further — when boys to paint ever with no respect. save intolerable annoyance & rage. ..
Stayed in London for Saturday last until Wednesday
now it — Saturday again!.

So far shooting at the dog Toby.
~~has been made~~ he has attached himself
to my person with an unique devotion.
He was very much put for the first two days after your departure; but seems happier now & will welcome you — give you a terrific welcome when you return.

I am very anxious to see your painting.
I do hope the art that keeps traitors
Daffy at Glam.

No news I think. — If only we could get some more done!

Mr. Harman must brought news of a most of the Financial men in Germany &
Hungary. that was all.

Charles came to-day —
Tom has gone to Cumberland.

Peter has a cold
I tried to do a haiku for the scullery in our cottage. — Rather mean. — Can't see anything in here. — Come.
Now am to try & paint usual fence business in. Sitting room at H.Q.
I had a new vision — retired.
Joans P.S. just arrived thank you so much Joan. What a head. — I remember it — amazing —
Find out what we can about the Red-haired translator of Maddy
Must stop, Ivy is dull, dull letter.
Yes — I think his net- B.H.S. & nos — I commencements - I believe I like them. V much. — can't remember.

Ever boy sends love.

Hope I may be with you very much
I return to London for Xmas Eve.
Now for another trip at the most Unfortunate difficult you all the Xmas

Lots of love David.

P.S. Would love to Smack from me
I note this for your printing stuff. — the dog took sitting scratching his hindmost- back- outside window.
